In the gospels, Jesus describes himself as a vine, a gate, the way etc, but the favourite image for many people is the Good Shepherd. The image is appealing because it evokes a tender sense of the nurture, protection and guidance which are integral to a shepherd's role

Parish Bulletin: Prayer requests and items for the Bulletin should be received at the Parish Office by 5pm on Wednesdays.

Sacred Heart Cathedral sits on the traditional country of the Awabakal and Worimi peoples.

We acknowledge their cultural heritage, beliefs and their continuing relationship with the land, pay respect to their Elders past, present and future, and commit ourselves to working together for reconciliation and justice.

HOUSING NEEDS FOR HUMANITARIAN ENTRANTS/ REFUGEES IN NEWCASTLE AND SURROUNDS

Settlement Services International (SSI) assist newly arrived refugees to resettle in Newcastle through the Humanitarian Settlement Program (HSP).

The tragic events taking place in Afghanistan has led to an influx of Afghan families into our region. Unfortunately, the current housing crisis in Newcastle means many families pass extended periods in short term housing, which greatly impacts well-being and the feeling of being 'at home'.

SSI are looking for landlords willing to commence tenancies with our clients. Families will pay market rent and be fully supported by their SSI Case Managers. We are looking for 2-4 bedroom properties in Newcastle. Any assistance is greatly appreciated.

Contact Helen Larkin for more information.

FROM THE MODERATOR

Dear friends,

As many of you may have already heard, Fr John Vo is leaving us. Our Diocesan Administrator Fr Greg Barker has re-assigned him to serve in the Maitland Region of Parishes effective from 22 May 2022, which will be his last Sunday with us in the City Pastoral Region. After leaving us Fr John will immediately go on a well-deserved holiday for some weeks before commencing ministry in the Maitland Region of Parishes on his return. His departure will be a huge loss for us and leaves us with only two resident priests in the City Pastoral Region. Unfortunately, due to clergy shortages right across our Diocese we will not be receiving anyone to replace Fr John. As a result, we will need to re-assess how many Masses we can continue to celebrate both on Sundays and during the week. We are very grateful to Fr Bob Searle and Fr Matthew Muller for their ongoing assistance, and Fr Greg who is currently assisting with a number of with our Sunday evening Masses in the Cathedral while Fr Matthew is on leave.

On another matter, this weekend we are sending out to our Mass centres copies of a petition issued by Right to Life NSW opposing the Voluntary Assisted Dying Bill 2021. You are invited to sign this if you haven't already signed the online petition, as the Church believes good palliative care is the best and most ethical way of assisting our terminally ill loved ones in their time of greatest need.

My thanks to all of you for your ongoing prayerful support and especially to our many volunteers for all the wonderful work they are doing. May the Lord richly bless you all.

Fr John Lovell

WHY JOHN?

You may have noticed that during the Easter season, we have been hearing exclusively from the gospel of John. But aren't we in Year C of the liturgical cycle – the year of Luke? Well, yes, but ... The gospel of the year is predominantly proclaimed during Ordinary Time. However, there is no Year of John. This gospel is read during the Easter season and at other specific feasts and seasons. As the synoptic gospels focus on the life and ministry of Jesus, the theological and metaphoric nature of John's gospel is much more suited to the post-resurrection season of Easter.

CATHOLIC EARTHCARE - LAUDATO SI' WEEK 16 - 24 MAY

As this celebration approaches, Caritas is encouraging you to take a look at the Catholic Earthcare process for parishes via the green button at <https://catholicearthcare.org.au>. Catholic Earthcare has made it easy for parishes to take up the Bishops' invitation to journey towards these 7 goals and to becoming living Laudato Si' communities. They invite you to join the growing number of Earthcare parishes across the nation who've begun this journey.

As part of Catholic Earthcare's celebration of Laudato Si' Week, they are hosting an online screening of the newly released 'Regenerating Australia' short film - a fictitious news segment set on New Year's Eve 2029, examining the decade that 'could be'. The film challenges us to consider how we respond to the Cry of the Earth. The event will be joined by Bishop Ken Howell and a range of guest speakers to share in this celebration. After the film, there will be a panel discussion and question time regarding how we can take the teachings of the film and respond as Catholics here in Australia.

You are welcome to join by yourself, or register a parish group for the viewing. [Please note if registering for a group, only 1 person need register via Trybooking]. The video will be streamed via zoom so you can watch together on a large screen at a suitable venue like a parish hall.

The online event will be held on Tuesday 17th May from 6pm - 8pm AEST, 4pm - 6pm AWST. Bookings at: <https://www.trybooking.com/BZADT>

Eternal life

In the gospel passage, Jesus says of the sheep that belong to him, "I give them eternal life." He does not say, I give them the promise of eternal life. The message that comes through the gospel of John is clear that eternal life is not some future existence, but rather a new way of being in the here and now. But that is not to suggest that there is not an 'eternal' quality to eternal life. The gospel of John makes clear that eternal life begins in the here and now but has no end.

REFLECTION BY RICHARD LEONARD

The Shawshank Redemption was the hit film of 1994. In it we follow the incarceration and escape plans of Tim Robbins and Morgan Freeman. Robbins is condemned to life imprisonment for the murder of his wife and her lover. Freeman says he is the 'only guilty man in Shawshank Prison'. Based on Stephen King's novella, this uplifting film is a surprise package from a writer whose fame comes from the horror genre.

The longer we watch the film, the more we realise that Stephen King has modelled his story on the Gospel of John. It is, in many respects a more modern parable about John's portrait of Jesus. Tim Robbins' character, Andy, like Jesus, is an innocent man, treated harshly by the authorities of his day. He has to endure the condemnation and cruelty of the leading religious zealots who are keepers of law and order, while he inspires others to think of a world free of subjection and oppression where they can be free to live the life of which they dream. Like John's Jesus, Andy has big dreams and often talks in riddles, but he leaves clues for others to follow him in their quest for freedom.

In the last part of the film, after Andy has successfully escaped and the governor of the prison has been exposed for the hypocrite he is, Freeman is paroled after serving 35 years hard labour. He decides to go where Andy has gone and, just as Andy promised when they were together in prison, he finds that Andy has prepared the way for him to follow. The moving climax of the film comes as Robbins and Freeman meet on a beach, embrace each other and share food and drink to celebrate the new life both of them have discovered.

Stephen King understands John's portrait of Jesus very well. For all of Jesus' assuredness and composure throughout the Gospel, the sense of care and intimacy in the encounters with his friends is deeply moving.

In the Easter Gospel to which we have just listened, Jesus returns to where his friends have fled from Jerusalem. In a parable about the growing numbers of the early Church, the Eucharist and the suffering they are enduring, John reaffirms that Jesus is intimately present in their following of him and their suffering for the Kingdom. The only sense John can make of Jesus' death, the martyrdom of the apostles or the persecution of the early church is to see them all as acts of love. 'No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends.'

Those of us who have been caught up in the net of God's love are heirs to the same promises of Jesus' fidelity. Christ is intimately present to us in every act of loving sacrifice we undertake for him. He continues to send us out to tell people of the place that has been prepared for them at the banquet of life and he gives us strength to gird our loins for the times when life takes us to places we would rather not go.

In this Eucharist let's be grateful for this Easter season when we celebrate again that we have been set free from the prison of our fears and shown the way to live a life of sacrificial love and undeserved redemption.

MYSTAGOGY MONDAY

Mystagogical reflection invites us into a personal encounter with Christ in the gospel we have heard, the liturgy we have celebrated, or an experience of life or ministry. It invites us to pay attention to what Christ reveals to us, both in that encounter and the living tradition of our faith and to connect it to life now. It invites us to dialogue and transformation.

Join us each Monday morning as we reveal the mystery of God found in the Sunday Gospel.

Commencing 9 May at 10am
