The nature of discipleship is the focus of today's gospel reading. To be a true disciple, it is necessary to put commitment to Jesus before relationships, material possessions, comfort and safety.

Happy Father's Day

Heavenly Father,
Today we ask You to bless our earthly fathers for the many times they reflected the love, strength, generosity, wisdom and mercy that You exemplify in Your relationship with us, Your children.

Parish Bulletin: Prayer requests and items for the Bulletin should be received at the Parish Office by 5pm on Wednesdays.

Sacred Heart Cathedral sits on the traditional country of the Awabakal and Worimi peoples. We acknowledge their cultural heritage, beliefs and their continuing relationship with the land, pay respect to their Elders past, present and future, and commit ourselves to working together for reconciliation and justice.

LIVING THE GOSPEL

Give up my possessions?

*We live in an era of extraordinary wealth in some countries contrasted against extraordinary poverty and need in other countries. Accumulation of possessions has become a driving force in our society.
Flat screen televisions, iPods, multiple computers, games consoles, portable DVD players, multifunction cell phones are all 'must-have' items. The thought of surrendering such items may be almost impossible to consider. However, Jesus' message about being a disciple calls to us. How can some people in the world surround themselves with such luxuries while others don't have enough to eat?
Does the love of 'possessions' blind us to the needs of others?*

PERPETUAL DAY OF REMEMBRANCE

SEPTEMBER 11

2022 marks five years since Lina's Project and Bishop Bill Wright establishing 15 September as a Perpetual day of Remembrance throughout the diocese.

A lot has happened in these five years, and particularly in the last twelve months or more. Our context is different, and context informs our feelings and understandings, our priorities and choices, our prayer and liturgy.

Two-and-a-half years of living with COVID-19 has opened our eyes, and the eyes of Australian society, to the broad spectrum of abuse including:

- The increasing incidence of domestic violence and abuse
- Ongoing child abuse in families: physical, sexual, emotional
- Lack of care and resources, and the abuse of the elderly both in aged care homes and our neighbourhoods
- Lack of care and resources, and the abuse of people with a disability, including our brothers and sisters who live with a mental health illness in care facilities and our neighbourhoods
- The sexual abuse and intimidation of women in society and some institutions structured around power, including our parliament
- Abuse of power in government institutions that disrespects all of us and our democratic principles including those of equity and justice
- Rampant abuse of creation, particularly of the earth which is our common home.

Our 2022 context also includes war in the Ukraine, and political and military power struggles and posturing in Asia and the Pacific.

Violence in all its forms, and abuse in particular, exist on a very broad spectrum. The examples listed above are on the extreme end. At the other end are the tiny seeds of abuse which, if not challenged, grow into and enable the extremes. Our long standing 'Prayer for Turning on Light' names some of these seeds: dishonesty, disrespect, hidden agendas, silence, exclusion. Such behaviours continue in our society, communities and workplaces.

What are we – the Catholic community – learning from our experience of abuse within the Church? How are we changing? What are we noticing and speaking up about now our eyes are wide open? What are we doing differently? How can our story and experience of the historical sexual abuse of children break us open to be a force for good and a source of wisdom in our ever-changing context? We know this landscape inside out. We know it because of the courage of survivors who have spoken up, and the media who amplified their voices and told their stories.

The Diocese has many resources available that support the Church's prayer response to the Perpetual Day of Remembrance (<http://mn.catholic.org.au>) Prayer is not our only response. It is, however, our unique response. The social workers, counsellors, police, media, doctors, lawyers, government and the many other support networks, including our own church networks, continue to respond to survivors and their families with their human presence and particular professional expertise.

The community of faith prays with its eyes and hearts wide open. The community of faith prays that it will be changed – 'it' being the church.

The community of faith prays: for those who cannot pray, for those who have lost all hope and faith, for those who see no possibility of healing, no hope for a new day. The community of faith prays for the survivors of sexual abuse perpetuated by members of the Catholic Church.

The community of faith prays for those in our society who are standing up and speaking out and demanding change: those who speak up for the environment; those who speak up for women: people like Rosie Batty, Grace Tame and Brittany Higgins who name our unpalatable truths; family members who speak out about elder abuse and abuse of those living with a mental illness; people who are part of unjust systems and who name a truth and demand change.

The community of faith holds hope for those who are no longer able to hope. As the People of God whose life is grounded in Christ's Paschal Mystery we know and seek to proclaim a truth far deeper than human wisdom and logic. It is the truth that in the very worst, the very darkest, the most devastating and hope-less moments of life, God is there with us, suffering with us, waiting with us, and acting to bring new and unimagined life out of death.

In 2022 our context has sharpened the imperative to remember and reflect on the story of historic child sexual abuse in the church of Maitland-Newcastle. The need for prayer is even more urgent. As always, the point of our remembering and praying is that we will be changed so we will help to shine the light of Christ in all the dark places of our Church and our world. We pray as Jesus taught the disciples that God's Kingdom will come and God's will be done.

SHINE THE LIGHT OF CHRIST VIGIL

To draw a line of continuity with National Child Protection Week, we invite you to begin our Perpetual Day of Remembrance with a Shine the Light of Christ Vigil. Churches, Schools, Diocesan Agencies and associated groups, individuals, house mates, families and communities are invited to turn/leave on a light on Saturday night September 10, the last day of National Child Protection Week and the Vigil Mass for Perpetual Day of Remembrance Sunday. This is a simple and public way to show we stand with survivors, and their families and friends, and that we are committed to Shine the Light of Christ on this issue and in our world. Immediately below is the Prayer for Turning on the Light of Christ. This will be easy for parish groups to do after the Vigil Mass.

PRAYER FOR TURNING ON 'THE LIGHT OF CHRIST'

If there is more than one person, the introductory dialogue will work as indicated below.

If you are alone, you might also say the response and omit 'Let us pray.'

Person 1: The light of Christ shines in the darkness

Response: and the darkness shall never overcome it.

Let us pray
God with us,
you have made us in your image and filled us with the breath of your divine life.
Through the life of Jesus
you show us the way to live in the light of your love.

As darkness falls may these lights remind us of our mission to shine the light of your love on the darkness of our Church and world.

Create a clean heart in us O God.

Where people are disempowered
May we shine the light of your justice.
Where there is privilege and prestige
May we shine the light of your humility.
Where there is dishonesty and denial
May we shine the light of your truth.
Where transparency is lacking and agendas are hidden
May we shine the light of your integrity.
Where there is fear
May we shine the light of your courage.
Where there is judgement
May we shine the light of your compassion.
Where there is disrespect
May we shine the light of your love.
Where people feel silenced

May we shine the light of your word.
Where people feel excluded
May we shine the light of your acceptance.
Where there is sin
May we shine the light of your forgiveness.
Create a clean heart in us O God.

For turning off the lights

Day has dawned.
As we turn off our lights
we commit to shining the light of Christ in all we do throughout our day.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS WE LAMENT AND WE HOPE

This year, for the first time, a version of the 'Stations of the Cross' has been prepared specifically for the Perpetual Day of Remembrance. It is available on the diocesan website if you would like to pray them individually. We will pray them together at Sacred heart Cathedral on 15th September @ 6pm

LEAD US

Lord,
Lead us from death to life,
From falsehood to truth.
Lead us from despair to hope,
from fear to trust.
Let peace fill our hearts, our world and our universe.
Let us dream together, pray together and work together,
To build one world of peace and justice for all.

APPLICATIONS ARE NOW OPEN FOR THE 2023 PASTORAL PLACEMENT PROGRAM

The Pastoral Placement Program offers participants an experience of ministry in the Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle. The purpose of this program is to give participants the opportunity to experience different workplaces and ministries across the diocese. These 'on the ground' ministry work placements help people explore the opportunities that are available to them to serve God and the local community of the Catholic Church in the Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle. The Pastoral Placement Program provides participants a year-long discernment journey, involving the see, judge, act philosophy, to make an informed choice about the possibility of their future ministry or career choices.

For more information and to learn to how to apply go to:

SETTLEMENT SERVICES INTERNATIONAL SEARCHES FOR RENTAL PROPERTIES

Over the coming month, more than 60 people from refugee backgrounds are arriving in Newcastle, and Settlement Services International (SSI) are struggling to secure enough on-arrival accommodation to house them. The regional housing crisis that is affecting our whole community is having a significant impact on their ability to welcome people into our community. At this stage it looks like they may need to redirect families to Sydney. Can you help?

SSI is looking for houses or units that can fit families of two to seven people, or some single bedroom units. Some of these rental properties will be "head leased" by SSI Group and used as on-arrival accommodation. Others may be rented directly to families from refugee backgrounds already here, and free up some of our existing on-arrival accommodation. Unfortunately, generous offers of a room in someone's home can't be used for on-arrival accommodation for these families. Email Helen Larkin hlarkin@ssi.org.au if you can help.

HISTORICAL CONTEXT

Radical poverty

The earliest Christian communities were characterized by a redistribution of all wealth and possessions to ensure that the needs of every single member were met. This was the first interpretation of Jesus' teaching to give up possessions to embrace discipleship. Modern religious life, grounded in the monastic traditions of the Middle Ages, embraces a radical poverty in order to free religious from societal notions of status and power so that they might more freely and openly serve others. Lack of possessions and wealth brings a humility and openness that is almost impossible when playing the game of 'keeping up with the Joneses'.

TODAY'S LITURGY

Entrance Antiphon: Ps 118:137, 124

You are just, O Lord, and your judgement is right; treat your servant in accord with your merciful love.

First Reading: Wis 9:13-18

Who can comprehend the will of God?

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 89:3-6. 12-14. 17. R. v.1

(R.) In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge.

1. You turn men back into dust and say: 'Go back, sons of men.'
To your eyes a thousand years are like yesterday, come and gone, no more than a watch in the night. (R.)
2. You sweep men away like a dream, like grass which springs up in the morning.
In the morning it springs up and flowers:
by evening it withers and fades. (R.)
3. Make us know the shortness of our life that we may gain wisdom of heart.
Lord, relent! Is your anger for ever?
Show pity to your servants. (R.)
4. In the morning, fill us with your love;
we shall exult and rejoice all our days.
Let the favour of the Lord be upon us:
give success to the work of our hands. (R.)

Second Reading: Phlm 9-10, 12-17

Receive him, not as a slave anymore, but as a very dear brother.

Gospel Acclamation: Ps 118:135

Alleluia, alleluia!

Let your face shine on your servant,
and teach me your laws.

Alleluia!

Gospel: Lk 14:25-33

All who do not renounce their possessions cannot be my disciples.

Communion Antiphon: Cf. Ps 41:2-3

Like the deer that yearns for running streams, so my soul is yearning for you, my God;
my soul is thirsting for God, the living God.

ART AND SPIRITUALITY WORKSHOP

An art and spirituality workshop will be held on 15
September at St Joseph's Community Centre, Kilaben Bay from 9am to 3pm. This workshop will provide an opportunity to awaken the Spirit through the beauty of God's creation, prayer, and reflection.

Creation of art provides an opportunity for a deepening awareness of oneself and the world and can act as a catalyst for evoking the Spirit.

Art is a means to see-to-re-search and find the living meaning of what it means to open the heart.
Everyone has the ability to create art, but in order for it to be theological, the artist needs to explore ways that it makes sense of faith. Opening the heart through art involves making meaning through the creation, then reflecting on the art itself and the unfolding the moment-to-moment direct experience of the process.

Participants will engage in art making experiences which will nourish their faith.

Cost: $25.

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY!

To celebrate Father's Day, here's my favourite dad joke:
What's brown and sticky? A stick.

STRENGTH OF A MOUNTAIN

God took the strength of a mountain,
The majesty of a tree,
The warmth of a summer sun,
The calm of a quiet sea,
The generous soul of nature,
The comforting arm of night,
The wisdom of the ages,
The power of the eagle's flight,
The joy of a morning in spring,
The faith of a mustard seed,
The patience of eternity,
The depth of a family need,
Then God combined these qualities,
When there was nothing more to add,
He knew His masterpiece was complete,
And so, He called it ... Dad
