Jesus is telling us in this Sunday's Gospel never to put style ahead of substance. To enter the Kingdom of God we need to be authentic: people of the heart and not people who live by appearances, as did the scribes and Pharisees. Like many in our world today, who are quick to judge and condemn, they prided themselves in knowing and policing the letter of the Law while ignoring the spirit of the Law, which is truth, justice and healing.

Sacred Heart Cathedral sits on the traditional country of the Awabakal and Worimi peoples.

We acknowledge their cultural heritage, beliefs and their continuing relationship with the land, pay respect to their Elders past, present and future, and commit ourselves to working together for reconciliation and justice.

FROM THE MODERATOR

Welcome to Fr Raphael

Dear Friends in Christ,

I am very happy to welcome Fr Raphael Madukwe from Nigeria to our City Pastoral Region. Fr Raphael was ordained 20 years ago, is 50 years old and will be residing in the Cathedral Presbytery with Fr Paul, Anton and myself for the next few months while he completes required induction processes for newly arrived overseas clergy. Within a couple of weeks, and once he has completed his initial statutory compliance registrations, he will be assisting Fr Paul and myself in ministry here. Raphael is a very pastoral and spiritual priest and we are most fortunate that he has come to serve in our Diocese. So, please join me in welcoming him and please keep him, along with the rest of our clergy, in your prayers.

Love
Fr John

HISTORICAL CONTEXT

But I now say to you...

There is a distinct pattern to the teaching examples Jesus provides: 'You have heard it said ...'; 'but I now say to you...'. This was a common method of teaching in Jesus' day and is often used as an example to suggest that Jesus was regarded as a Rabbi in his day. It is a typical rabbinical method of interpreting scripture. The rabbi quotes the teaching (you have heard it said...) and then offers an interpretation or reinterpretation of that teaching (but I now say to you). While it is an unfamiliar teaching style for us today, it would have been common in Jesus' time.

WE GRIEVE

Experiences of grief are stepping-stones in our human journey
'We Grieve' is an opportunity to explore our understanding of change, loss and grief

We have all experienced change and loss these last three years because of COVID and the normal rhythm of life.

Seasonal changes in nature provide us with rich insight into how life is constantly evolving. This eternal cycle of change and loss offers a message of hope.

Using the Seasons for Growth educational program as the foundation for this 3-hour session we invite you to join the conversation – to share and learn together, to gain some new insights or perspectives, and to move towards healing and growth.

All are welcome: family, friends, neighbours ...

2023 LENTEN REFLECTION

FINDING LIGHT WITHIN THE DARKNESS

Pastoral Ministries has prepared a Lenten resource for our diocese, Finding Light within the Darkness. Every Lent there is a fresh invitation to retreat from the noise and busyness of daily life. To listen with our heart, to contemplate our humanness so we can actively focus on humanity. We are invited to turn to God dwelling within us and consider how we can find light in the darkness and how we can be light to others. This resource provides opportunities for prayer, faith-sharing, and outreach in our local community. Download it from the dio website or:

PROJECT COMPASSION LAUNCH

Date: Tuesday 21 February 2023

Time: 10:15am for 10:30am – 12:30pm

Location: Sacred Heart Cathedral, 841 Hunter Street, Newcastle West followed by complimentary pancakes in The Southern Cross Hall

The Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle will be launching the Caritas Australia Project Compassion Lenten Appeal at a special Shrove Tuesday Liturgy presided by Diocesan Administrator, Fr. Greg Barker.

In 2023, we are being called to step up and make a difference “For All Future Generations”.

Our world is hurting. With escalating conflicts, rising cost of living, poverty, homelessness, climate crisis, loneliness, re-gathering in a post Covid world, we want and need to make a difference. Lent comes as an opportunity to prepare our hearts to be more compassionate, more generous, and more loving of our neighbours.

As a community of communities, we welcome and invite all members of our Clergy, Leaders, Chaplains, School Leaders, Students, Parishioners, Religious Orders, Catholic organisations, staff across our Diocese and wider community to gather “For all Future Generations” this Lent. All in attendance will be called up to receive a project compassion appeal box during the Liturgy.

To commemorate Shrove Tuesday and the launch of Project Compassion, pancakes will then be served in The Southern Cross Hall for all.

Please RSVP your attendance by using the Eventbrite link: <https://PC2023.eventbrite.com.au> or by email to Kate kate.crncevic@mn.catholic.org.au

REFLECTION

Fr Michael Tate

Truth-Telling

I seem to remember some lines from a poem I learnt at school: 'Oh, what a tangled web we weave, when first we practise to deceive.'

To guard against deceptions, many societies and organisations, including the Church, require a person to swear an oath to bolster their assertion that they are telling 'the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth'.

But, we have just heard the least observed command of Our Lord in the Sermon on the Mount. Referring to oaths he taught, 'Do not swear at all ... instead let your "yes" mean yes and your "no" mean no. Whatever goes beyond these simple words is from the Evil One.'

The early Church took this prohibition extremely seriously. It was only when the Church and State became entwined three hundred years later that that policy changed. The Church preferred to avoid tension with the political authority which required oaths as a supposed guarantee of truthful speaking.

The Church was weak, whereas Our Lord was strong. When He was challenged by the High Priest to swear by the Living God whether He was the Christ, Jesus simply replied: 'The words are yours', refusing to invoke the Living God. (Matt 26:63-64). Aren't we meant to imitate Jesus?

'Yes or No.' Our Lord tells us: '... anything more than this comes from the Evil One.'

This is strong language. Why does Our Lord say this?

In the same Sermon on the Mount, he teaches us the proper use of God's name: 'Our Father'. It is the beginning of the prayer which is Jesus' gift to his community. It is our privilege and right as adopted children of God to use God's name in that way. That is the way in which Our Lord wants us to use the name of God. The use of God's name for oath-swearing is an abuse.

It is clear that Our Lord was trying to establish a new sort of society (The Kingdom) within which truth-telling was of paramount importance, where there is no two tiered way of speaking the truth. Anything more by way of pious veneer devalues plain speaking. Straightforward, unadorned language will do.

Truth telling should issue simply from the character of the person – the truthful person truths.

We know this at the very private level of intimate relationships. Such relationships are easily fractured or soured by lying. At the community level, a society will soon break down if the words of its members cannot be relied on.

It is shocking, but true, to realise that in this respect, secular society is more in conformity with the Sermon on the Mount! At least it allows for observance of Our Lord's injunction. For example, Parliamentarians are offered the choice of an oath or an affirmation in taking up their duties in the Chamber. The Courts offer the same choice, and if the accused makes the affirmation, no adverse inference can be drawn by Judge or jury.

And the Church? The Church needs to listen to the epistle of St James. It was written within living memory of the Sermon on the Mount and is astonishing in recalling this passage almost verbatim, urging it on to a new generation of disciples.

St James, a relative of Our Lord and leader of the Church in Jerusalem, writes, 'Above all, my beloved, do not swear, either by heaven or by earth or by any other oath, but let your "yes" be yes and your "no" be no so that you may not fall under condemnation.' (James 5:12-13)

The Church needs to put itself under the authority of the Sermon on the Mount, or rather under the authority of the Divine Teacher. Then perhaps it will find itself able to teach the rest of the Sermon with greater credibility, a greater chance of being heard.

The Church needs to hear for itself the final great imperative in this Gospel: 'Teach them to keep all that I have commanded you.' (Matthew 28:20)

INVITATION TO JOIN THE CATHEDRAL CHOIR

A beautiful statement attributed to St. Augustine says: "Those who sing pray twice". A song by Celtic Thunder claims: "All God's creatures got a place in the choir, some sing low and some sing higher, some sing out loud on a telephone wire, some just clap their hands!"

We have a place for you in the Cathedral Choir! We sing every Sunday at the 9:30am Mass. Choir practice is Thursday evening at 6pm and again Sunday morning at 8:45am.

Why not join us for Lent and Easter? Ash Wednesday is February 22. Join the choir on February 23 and learn the music for the Easter Triduum on April 6, 7, and 8. It's an amazing experience!
