Parish Bulletin: Prayer requests and items for the Bulletin should be received at the Parish Office by 5pm on Wednesdays.

Blessing ourselves in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit has become such a regular part of our lives as Christians, that we can often do it without really thinking of the three Divine persons we are invoking. They are also often referred to as: the Creator, the Redeemer and the Sanctifier, in view of our experience of God's self-revelation of Himself in the scriptures. This Sunday we are specially called to reflect on the mystery and importance in our lives, of these three persons perfectly united in the one Triune God.

Fr John

Our Parishes incorporate suburbs located on the traditional country of the Awabakal and Worimi peoples. NOTICE TO PLANNED GIVERS - THE END OF FINANCIAL YEAR IS COMING!

Planned Giving Tax Receipts: Parishioners who require a tax receipt for planned giving for the 2022/2023 financial year must notify the Parish Office before 30th June 2023.

Please submit requests in writing by one of the following methods:

Email to newcparish@mn.catholic.org.au: Use the wording, "Please provide me with a Planned Giving tax receipt" and include your name and envelope number.

Planned Giving Envelope: Write on your weekly envelope, "Tax receipt required".

Tax receipt data will be processed on 30 June 2023. If you make a request after that date you will not be eligible for a receipt, nor for a tax deduction in relation to your planned giving contributions. This is because there is a designated sum that can be attributed to planned giving receipts and, once this distribution has occurred on 30 June 2023, no further allocations are possible.

The 'designated sum' provision also means that the claimable amount for each giver decreases when more people request a receipt. We therefore request that if you do not intend to claim a tax deduction, please do not request a receipt.

For those who do not claim a tax deduction but would like their contribution acknowledged, we can provide, on request, a letter confirming your contribution total.

SAFEGUARDING

Do you know about safeguarding? We here continue our ten-part series addressing each of the Safeguarding Standards.

The Standards are a risk management tool to provide a benchmark so that a safe environment with the support of policies and procedures exists within the Australian Catholic Church. The compendium notes what the standards cannot do. The Standards apply to the entities of the Catholic Church and to its personnel both paid and unpaid, not to individuals in their private lives. The Standards can be mapped against State and Federal regulations as well as existing requirements of entities such as recommendations of Royal commissions.

The third standard, PARTNERING WITH FAMILIES, CARERS AND COMMUNITIES has 4 criteria.

Competency: Families, carers and communities are informed and involved in promoting the safeguarding of children and adults

Comment: Inclusiveness is at the heart of this standard empowering everyone to actively participate. Awareness of governance and dignity and rights of all people.

Criteria 3.1: Parents, carers and/or guardians participate in decisions affecting their child, or adults with diminished capacity.

Comment: The criterion encourages active participation and monitoring the safety of those involved in ministry or service

Criteria 3.2: Families, carers and communities are engaged with and are provided information about the entity's approach to safeguarding.

Comment: Knowing who we are, our approach and that we welcome your input into the Safeguarding practices within our parish

Criteria 3.3: Families, carers and communities are informed about the entity's operations and governance; and have an opportunity to have a say in the safeguarding policies and practices.

Comment: Parishioners awareness and engagement with safeguarding practices and policies is included in this criterion.

Criteria 3.4: The entity raises community awareness of the dignity and rights of all children and adults.

Comment: A responsibility is placed on the entity to raise awareness of abuse prevention and the rights of people at risk

REFLECTION

By Richard Leonard

Years ago I was asked to take a parish-based catechetics class for children from a government primary school. I started by trying to work out how much the children knew about the basics. I asked, 'When we make the sign of the cross, what do we say?' 'Father, Son and Holy Spirit' came the firm reply. So far so good! I tried upping the bar. 'What do we call the Father, Son and Holy Spirit?' There was complete silence. I tried another track. 'What do you think of when you make the Sign of the Cross?' There was an awkward silence and then a bright little boy cheerily said, 'The old man, the young fella and the bird!'

No one can blame those children for the poverty of their images of the Trinity. Many older Catholics have similar images from paintings and holy pictures. The mystery of the Trinity means that in whatever way we portray God as Father, Son and Spirit it will always be inadequate and incomplete. No one has ever seen God or the Holy Spirit. No one has a portrait of Jesus. All the images and words we use for the Trinity are more a reflection of our faith than the final word about God. God is always more than any name we use or any concept we have. The special insight into God we celebrate today is that relationships are at the very centre of who God is.

It took the early Christians four hundred years to fully grasp what Jesus was on about when he spoke of his relationship to the Father and Spirit. They struggled to understand how and why God would have three faces and yet exist as One Being – love as One, act as One. They settled the 'how' of the Trinity's nature by teaching us that the persons of the Trinity are co-equal, co-substantial and co-eternal. They settled the 'why' of the Trinity by reflecting that their experience of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit was an encounter of love. They knew the core of God was not an idea or a principle, but was a loving relationship. Furthermore, the early Christians knew that they were invited into this relationship.

What was true for them is true for us. Think about this for a minute: we believe that the God who creates, redeems and sustains the world seeks us out and invites us into a loving relationship. This is what gives us our greatest dignity and urges us on to share this message with everyone we meet. What a privilege! What an invitation! What a God!

It also follows that if relationships are at the core of God then, for those of us who accept the invitation into the Trinity's embrace, relationships are meant to be our core business too. We are not to be isolated believers or private disciples. The degree to which we understand today's feast will be shown in the care we take in our many and varied relationships, be they social, intimate, professional, civic or international.

Every time we do anything to form new and good relationships, mend those which are broken, help other relationships to be deeper and richer or just enjoy the ones we have, we discover one thing: Trinity Sunday is a moveable feast.

MEDITATION GROUPS AT LIVING WATERS CENTRE

LIVING WATERS CHRISTIAN MEDIATION CENTRE, 34 Kenrick Street, The Junction, offers meditation sessions on Wednesdays at 7.30am and Fridays at 11.00am – and has done so for the last 25 years, in which time many hundreds of people have taken up this prayer form. THE APOSTLES CREED

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth;
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord;
Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty; from there He shall come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body and life everlasting.
Amen.
