Sacred Heart Cathedral sits on the traditional country of the Awabakal and Worimi peoples.

We acknowledge their cultural heritage, beliefs and their continuing relationship with the land, pay respect to their Elders past, present and future, and commit ourselves to working together for reconciliation and justice.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

As I approach my ordination to the priesthood of Christ on the 23rd of November at the Sacred Heart Cathedral, the readings for the Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time resonate deeply with me—particularly the essence of true generosity.

In the Gospel, Jesus highlights the poor widow who, despite her poverty, gives all she has; what a profound example of self-giving. This act challenges us to examine our own motivations and the nature of our contributions—not just in material terms, but in the context of our very selves.

I am reminded that my vocation should be rooted in the selfless love exemplified by Christ, embracing the call to give oneself entirely for the service of others. Just as the widow's gift, though small, was of immense value in God's eyes, I am called to offer my life and ministry with the same totality and openness, trusting in God's providence.

What does true generosity look like in your own life, and how can you embody that spirit in your daily actions?

Solomon

WELCOME MATER GRADUATE NURSES

Today we welcome members of the Mater Graduate Nurses to the 9:30am Mass at the Cathedral. It is a privilege to have them join us each year.

FOR OUR BELOVED DECEASED

Into your hands, O Lord, we humbly entrust our brothers and sisters. In this life you embraced them with your tender love; Deliver them now from every evil and bid them eternal rest.

The old order has passed away; Welcome them into paradise, where there will be no sorrow, no weeping or pain, but fullness of peace and joy with your Son and the Holy Spirit forever and ever. Amen

OUR BELOVED DEAD

We remember those in our Columbaria whose anniversaries occur in November.

FROM THE PARISH PRIEST

Dear friends,

As many of you would have heard from the pulpit last Sunday, Bishop Michael has appointed Fr Greg Barker, Vicar-General, as the incoming Parish Priest of the three parishes (Newcastle City, Mayfield and Stockton) of the City Pastoral Region, effective from 1st January 2025.

Fr Greg served as Diocesan Administrator following the death of Bishop Bill Wright in late 2021 until the installation of our current Bishop Michael Kennedy in March 2023. Fr Greg, with his extensive experience in parish administration, both in our diocese and before that in Tasmania, and his good pastoral leadership, will be a great strength to our region. I know he looks forward to meeting and working with all our parish communities. Please keep him in your prayers as he prepares for this new role in less than two months' time and also for me as I prepare to retire from active ministry at that time.

We also keep Deacon Solomon in our prayers as his date for priestly ordination on 23rd November draws ever closer, and remember our local Year 12 students who have been undertaking their HSC exams over these past few weeks and will be eagerly awaiting their results.

Love, Fr John

RED NOVEMBER

Aid to the Church in Need

ACN AUSTRALIA NEW ZEALAND

A message from Aid to the Church in Need Australia and New Zealand: ACN is the Pontifical Foundation dedicated to supporting the suffering and persecuted Church.

Red Wednesday is an international initiative of Aid to the Church in Need (ACN). It is a day to stand up for faith and freedom; to gather and pray for those who suffer and are persecuted for their faith. Around the world, churches and public buildings will light up in red, a symbol of the sacrifice and suffering of our modern-day martyrs, and so will our Cathedral.

In our Cathedral, the Red November event will be held on Nov 17th and Nov 20th (8:15am mass). On Nov 17th (Sunday masses 9:30am and 5pm), an ACN speaker will share information about the mission of ACN, and also have an info-table which will contain Olivewood items from Bethlehem. By purchasing Olivewood religious items from Bethlehem, you can support the livelihood of the Christians who are affected because of the crisis.

You may also wish to watch this short video that highlights the plight of Christians in the Holy Land:

MERCY SISTERS ECOLOGY FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

This program is for emerging leaders in Integral Ecology awareness and animation, who desire to be part of the ongoing enhancement and development of reflective action for Gospel justice in response to the cries of Earth. There are five components of the Program committed emerging leaders will complete. This will better enable them and their communities to respond to ecological challenges.

Applications for the fully funded 2025-2026 Mercy Sisters Ecology Fellowship Program close on Monday 18 November. Find out more about the program and how to apply: <https://tinyurl.com/EcologyProgram>

POPE FRANCIS FOCUS

After denouncing the flamboyant religiosity of the scribes, Jesus watched people putting money into the treasury. He saw rich people putting in 'a great deal', probably because such donations were clearly meant to be noticed.

But, as Jesus tells his disciples, a 'poor widow' gave more. As Pope Francis points out, 'she does not pray to make herself seen, she does not show off her faith.' Trusting God and acting humbly, Jesus notices her.

Yet there is another aspect to this incident, which plays out against Jesus' description of ostentatious scribes as 'men who swallow the property of widows.' The contrast between pious scribes and the poor widow could not be greater.

Jesus is not only praising humility; he is reacting to injustice. As the Pope points out, Jesus 'denounces the exploitation of this woman.' After depositing those tiny coins, she 'must return home without even the little she had to live on.'

The Pope challenges us to take this Gospel fully to heart. We are all called to be humble, but also to work for justice. 'This is a warning for all time and for everyone, Church and society,' he says. We must 'never take advantage of one's role to crush others, never make money off the backs of the weakest!' God will remember every penny ever given, but also those unjustly taken.

RCIA TEAM—CITY PASTORAL REGION

Dear friends,

As many of you may already be aware, we are currently forming an RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) Team for the parishes of our City Pastoral Region. I'm very grateful to those generous parishioners who have volunteered to be part of this team, and also Sr Louise Gannon rsj and the Worship & Prayer Team, in assisting us with formation of this wonderful ministry.

Saying this, it's important to recognize that all of us, as an intrinsic part of our Christian calling, have a role in the work of evangelisation (including welcoming & accompanying) of anyone interested in joining our Catholic faith. It can be very inspiring to hear the stories of those who are seeking to build a relationship with the Lord and His people through this process.

So, I invite you to let me know if you'd like to volunteer to be a companion (ie. welcome and sit with one of these people at Sunday Mass) to accompany them on their journey. Instruction will be provided for you if you are able to help in this way. In doing this, you will be making a very valuable and practical contribution to building-up the Kingdom of God in our region. To register your interest, please forward your name and a contact number/email to our Parish Office at: newcparish@mn.catholic.org.au or telephone on (02) 49791101.

Love, Fr John

Email Elul.tecle@mn.catholic.org.au to find out more.

THE CHUCKLE

The 98 year old Mother Superior was dying. The nuns gathered around her bed trying to make her last journey comfortable. They gave her warm milk to drink but she refused. One of the nuns took the glass back to the kitchen, found a bottle of sherry and poured a generous amount into the warm milk. Back at Mother Superior's bed, she held the glass to her lips. Mother drank a little, and before they knew it, she had drunk the whole glass down to the last drop. "Mother," the nuns asked, "please share some wisdom before you die." She raised herself up in bed and with a pious look on her face said, "Don't sell that cow."

VIEW, CHEW, CHAT, AND LECTIO

View, Chew, and Chat meets Wednesday 13 November @ 7pm. For the next two weeks we will be focussing on Advent. To participate, please email the parish office: newcparish@mn.catholic.org.au

REFLECTION BY DIANNE BERGANT CSA

The willingness to give all that one has is the central theme of today's readings. They offer us three models.

Jesus is the ultimate example of heroic generosity. He first offered himself as expiation for our sin. Now, as the eternal high priest, he stands before God as our mediator, pleading on our behalf, bringing salvation to those who eagerly await him.

It is interesting to note that the other two models of selfless giving are widows, individuals who are doubly disadvantaged by the patriarchal societies of which they are members. Their generosity is religiously inspired, and it comes from women who had the least material possessions to give. This kind of giving requires that we reach deep into ourselves and almost strip ourselves of our hold on life, and that we do this for religious reasons. The giving that is pictured in today's readings is nothing less than heroic generosity.

God will not be outdone in generosity. Sometimes we become the beneficiaries of obvious blessing, as was the case in the story of the woman of Zarephath who was granted a year's supply of flour and oil. At other times, we simply continue living life as usual, like the woman in the temple who was unaware of the commendation that Jesus had given her. The truly generous do not look for reward. They carry out their responsibilities and place the rest in God's hands.

HISTORICAL CONTEXT

The Widow

In ancient Jewish culture, until a woman was married she was literally the property of her father. Upon marrying, the woman left her family and became part of her husband's family and became specifically the property of her husband. If the woman's husband were to die, leaving her a widow, she no longer had anywhere to belong. Because a woman's identity was based on which man she belonged to, she effectively ceased to belong anywhere. It is for this reason that the Torah names widows as deserving of special care and protection from the whole community.
