Sacred Heart Cathedral sits on the traditional country of the Awabakal and Worimi peoples. We acknowledge their cultural heritage, beliefs and their continuing relationship with the land, pay respect to their Elders past, present and future, and commit ourselves to working together for reconciliation and justice.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Today's feast of Christ the King reminds us that Christ's dominion extends to everyone and to everything because He is the one who created all things. His kingdom is:

- a kingdom of truth and life
- a kingdom of holiness and grace
- a kingdom of justice, love, and peace.

May we co-create a world ruled not through domination, but in that radical and all-powerful compassion and love. Amen.

RCIA TEAM—CITY PASTORAL REGION

Dear friends,

As many of you may already be aware, we are currently forming an RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) Team for the parishes of our City Pastoral Region. I'm very grateful to those generous parishioners who have volunteered to be part of this team, and also Sr Louise Gannon rsj and the Worship & Prayer Team, in assisting us with formation of this wonderful ministry.

Saying this, it's important to recognize that all of us, as an intrinsic part of our Christian calling, have a role in the work of evangelisation (including welcoming & accompanying) of anyone interested in joining our Catholic faith. It can be very inspiring to hear the stories of those who are seeking to build a relationship with the Lord and His people through this process.

So, I invite you to let me know if you'd like to volunteer to be a companion (ie. welcome and sit with one of these people at Sunday Mass) to accompany them on their journey. Instruction will be provided for you if you are able to help in this way. In doing this, you will be making a very valuable and practical contribution to building-up the Kingdom of God in our region. To register your interest, please forward your name and a contact number/email to our Parish Office at: newcparish@mn.catholic.org.au or telephone on (02) 49791101.

Love, Fr John

THE CHUCKLE

"I hope you didn't take it personally, Father," an embarrassed woman said after a church service, "when my husband walked out during your sermon."

"I did find it rather disconcerting," the priest replied.

"It wasn't out of any disrespect to you," insisted the woman. "He's been walking in his sleep ever since he was a child."

FRANCIS' FOCUS BY NICK BRODIE

'History teaches us,' Pope Francis reflects, 'that kingdoms founded on the force of arms and on the abuse of power are fragile and sooner or later collapse.'

Jesus makes clear that his kingdom is not the usual worldly one with which Pilate was familiar. Rather, as the Pope puts it, Jesus 'did not come to dominate but to serve. He did not come amid signs of power, but with the power of signs.'

In our celebration of Christ the King, therefore, we should focus on aligning ourselves and the Church with the values of Jesus' kingdom.

As the Pope suggests, one characteristic of this kingdom is that it is 'liberating, there is nothing oppressive about it.' Jesus, he adds pointedly, 'treats every disciple as a friend, not as a subject.' The Church, therefore, should be a place of welcome.

The Church should also be a place of transparency and truthfulness. As the Pope says, 'when Jesus reigns in the heart, he frees it from hypocrisy, he frees it from subterfuge, from duplicity.' If we really 'live under the lordship of Jesus,' the Pope points out, then we cannot 'live double lives.' Telling Pilate that he bears witness to 'the truth,' Jesus invites us to do likewise.

GOSPEL FOCUS

Truth

Jesus says to Pilate that he came into the world 'to bear witness to the truth; and all who are on the side of truth listen to my voice.' That is where today's gospel passage finishes but as the gospel continues on, Pilate famously asks Jesus 'What is truth?' and the question is left dangling; unanswered. The truth Jesus has borne witness to is the truth of his whole life – the revelation of God's love for humanity. It is for proclaiming this truth that Jesus is placed on trial and is brought before Pilate.

REFLECTION BY GREG SUNTER

This week marks the end of the liturgical year. Next week, with the first week of Advent, we begin the new liturgical cycle.

It is fitting that the Church concludes the liturgical year with the celebration of Christ the King. The conversation between Jesus and Pilate displays a lot of word play on the part of Jesus and quite a lot of confusion on the part of Pilate. The confusion stems from different perceptions of what it means to be a king. For Pilate, part of the most powerful political and military rule in the ancient world, the idea of a king was a threat. Claiming kingship was claiming authority and power that would inevitably lead to challenging the authority and power of Rome and, more directly, its representative in Palestine – Pilate.

Jesus, of course, had a completely different idea about ushering in a kingdom. He does indeed declare that he is a king and that is what leads us to today's feast of Christ the King. However, his intention is not to claim a position of power and authority. When we think back to Jesus' teachings about the kingdom of God, we recall that he declares the people of highest status – the first – in the kingdom to be the lowliest of this world. It is the poor, the sick, the outcast, the children and the widows who will hold the highest places in the kingdom of God.

In a kingdom like that, what does it mean to declare oneself king? The confusion about what it means to be a king that is captured in this interaction between Jesus and Pilate is the same confusion that we saw among the disciples as they came to terms with exactly what it means to be the Messiah.
