THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

What kind of boss do you have? Does she or he lord it over you like the devil-wears-prada-type? Christ, in today's Gospel, challenges his followers not to lord it over but to be leaders for others. Christ invites us to a discipleship that is mindful and responsive to the needs of our neighbours — never for self-aggrandizement nor personal gain. How about you, are you any different from your boss?

Fr Anthony

Sacred Heart Cathedral sits on the traditional country of the Awabakal and Worimi peoples.

We acknowledge their cultural heritage, beliefs and their continuing relationship with the land, pay respect to their Elders past, present and future, and commit ourselves to working together for reconciliation and justice.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Reach out. Give life.

During World Mission Sunday, we're invited to partner with the Church in Mongolia to help deliver essential services to people in desperate need.

Serving others is at the heart of the Christian Gospel. For those who serve as missionaries, in places as far flung as Mongolia, there is a daily call, and commitment, to being available to support, care for and love the people in need, in communities where they find themselves planted. In countries like Mongolia, the focus for this year's Catholic Mission appeal campaign, missionaries are establishing places of refuge and fellowship, so that the homeless and the hungry, those fleeing domestic violence and children who are unable to stay at home, have somewhere where they can experience God's healing grace and mercy.

This is why we are inviting you to join with us this year, to support the House of Mercy and the Don Bosco Caring Center, with your prayers and financial contributions. May God bless you for your kindness and generosity; through your support of Catholic Mission, you will give others a place at the banquet table as well.

To support Catholic Mission's annual World Mission Month appeal, go to www.catholicmission.org.au and type the name Chuluunbaatar into the search bar.

To follow up Catholic Mission, about any aspect of its work or your support and contact details, please call the Diocesan Director in Maitland/Newcastle, David McGovern on 0431 481 731 or email him at dmcgovern@catholicmission.org.au

FROM OUR BISHOP

15 October 2024

Dear brothers and sisters,

Re: Review of Perpetual Day of Remembrance

It is now some time since my predecessor, Bishop William Wright, established the Perpetual Day of Remembrance in the Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle to remember those who have suffered abuse at the hands of people who were entrusted with their protection. It is an occasion when we come together in prayer for all those affected by abuse and commit to ensuring that the past failings are never repeated.

The purpose for which this day was established remains ever important. Nevertheless, the way in which it is commemorated may be subject to change to ensure that its purpose is best achieved and that it remains meaningful.

To this end, I invite you to complete a brief survey to help inform this process, so that we can make informed decisions about how the Perpetual Day of Remembrance might most effectively be commemorated into the future.

Yours in Christ

Most Reverend Michael Kennedy

Bishop of Maitland-Newcastle

Living the Gospel – Servant Leadership

What does it really mean to practise servant leadership? It means placing the needs of others before your own desires for prestige or authority. Servant leadership is about collaborating; it's about empowering people to do their best; it's about trusting others and about rolling up your sleeves and getting on with the job.

REFLECTION BY NICK BRODIE

Jesus tells his disciples straight: Lording it over people 'is not to happen among you.'

Considering this, Pope Francis suggests we reflect on our daily lives and aspirations. If all we do in our daily lives is oriented 'to feed our ambition, to climb the ladder of success, to reach important positions,' then what would Jesus say to us?

He might remind us to serve each other within the Christian community itself and to become servants 'to all'. We are called to build up the community of faith through mutual service. And, as individuals and as a community, we are also called to serve the world.

The Pope suggests that we can 'discover God's way of doing things' by contemplating Jesus, who 'lowered himself to wash our feet'. We should, both as a Church and as individual Christians, always seek to humbly 'put ourselves at the service of others'.

As the Church continues its synodal journey, this message should resonate deeply. Even within the Church, the Pope acknowledges, people can get lost by a 'quest for personal prestige'. But today we are reminded that Jesus warned us. We have no excuses for any pomp that comes at the expense of the poor.

Have you thought?
Integrity

Who do you really admire? Who would you really like to be like? Aside from sports stars, models and actors whose particular skills you might admire or even envy; who is a person who lives their life in a way that you would like to emulate? Perhaps it's not that you want to do exactly what they have done but rather it's the way they've gone about living their life. I would bet that there is a close match between what they hold to be true and the way they live their life - integrity!

HUNTER CIRCLES

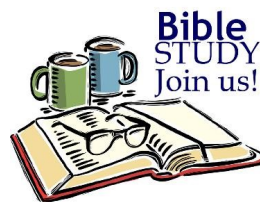

Hunter Circles is a grassroots community organisation committed to addressing the social isolation experienced by people with intellectual disability in our community.

We have introduced a new way to volunteer: the Social Connector role. This is a rewarding opportunity to build a freely-given relationship with a person with intellectual disability, supporting them to connect with the community and expand their social networks.

There are many ways to get involved as a volunteer and we provide ongoing training and support. The role is flexible, tailored to the interests and needs of each person while building a stronger Hunter community in a practical way. We are looking for volunteers who might like to support a person to:

- Walk together at Park Run each week at Lambton
- Attend Sunday mass at 5pm at The Cathedral each week
- Volunteer at Hunter Wetlands together

For more information, please contact Jen Cush at Hunter Circles for more information on 0401 388 164 or info@huntercircles.org

GOSPEL REFLECTION BY GREG SUNTER

James and John are effectively calling 'shotgun' on the best seats at the table! When they ask to sit at the left and right hand of Jesus, they are asking Jesus to name them as his deputies. They're looking to secure for themselves positions of power and authority. The only problem is that they have a completely messed up idea of what it means for Jesus to enter into his glory.

For several weeks now, we have been exploring a theme from the Gospel of Mark that follows a physical journey towards Jerusalem as well as a symbolic and theological journey towards what is going to occur in Jerusalem – Jesus' arrest, crucifixion and resurrection.

Throughout this journey, Jesus has been trying to prepare the disciples for what is to come and educate them about what it really means to be a disciple of his. Three times Jesus tells the disciples explicitly what lies ahead. Each time the disciples fail to grasp what Jesus tells them. Despite occasional glimpses of insight, the disciples still believe that Jesus is going to rise up as a political or military figure. In a complete dismissal of this sort of thinking, Jesus declares quite forcefully that leadership of this sort is not what he intends for himself, nor for those who follow him.

Leadership in the Jesus model is about being of service to others; it is not about prestige and acclamation. Many of the best leaders are those who do not have any title of leadership or authority. Their leadership and authority come from what they do and how they do it. They inspire others to follow their example. They don't demand it; they don't bully; they don't play power games. People simply want to follow their example.
